MXPX ANNOUNCE 2014 TOUR DATES

Current Album, 'Plans Within Plans,' Available Now

Los Angeles, CA, January 9, 2014 -- Having sold out their recent 21st anniversary show in Tacoma, Washington, late last year, punk-rock trio MXPX is ready to announce a handful of 2014 tour dates. First, the band will head to Hamilton, New Zealand, to perform at the Parachute Festival on Saturday, January 25, before heading back to the States for four shows -- January 26 in Honolulu, HI, January 30 in Denver, CO, with Allister and The Potato Pirates, January 31 in San Diego, CA, and February 1 in Pomona, CA, both with Allister and Kristopher Roe.

MXPX is touring in support of their ninth studio album, Plans Within Plans (Rock City Recording Company), released April 3, 2012 through the band's own label, Rock City Recording Company. MXPX has sold over 2.5 million records worldwide, staying true to both themselves and their sound, while remaining one of pop-punk's most well-respected names for over two decades.

Fans will definitely be given the chance to reminisce with the band through a set list of both old and new tracks from their catalog.
